Exam Announcement – Status: 18th of February 2021
Update from 18th of February 2021

According to the decision of KIT, which was sent to all students by e-mail on 04.02.2021, and a discussion in the faculty, the examinations in winter semester 2020 / 2021 can and will take place in presence. Some institutes may offer alternative forms of examination (e.g. online exams) depending on the comparability of the competences assessed. Due to our contents we do not offer BoMT as an online exam.

Therefore, according to the current status, the BoMT exam will take place in presence in Karlsruhe on 16th of March 2021.

Please also check the slides below for further information.

According to the KIT, students can be expected to retake examinations in one of the following semesters without impairing advancement in studies. However, as a general compensation, the regular period of study was extended by one semester for students that started their studies in WS 2020 / 2021 and by two semesters for students that started their studies earlier.

Nevertheless, in order to mitigate cases of particular individual hardness, students are free to submit a request to change the form of examination to the examination board (“Prüfungsausschuss”). For this, however, a direct extension of the duration of studies or other very serious disadvantages must be verifiably proven. This is generally not possible for students from the first semesters. In our experience, only requests from students having a maximum of three exams remaining are approved. Therefore, in most cases, we discourage such requests. In addition, the corresponding consequences must be taken into account: For example, a change of the form of examination to an oral exam cannot be reversed and excludes you from the chance of an oral reexamination after a second failed attempt.

Students that cannot participate in the written examination on 16th of March 2021 for compelling reasons may contact Johannes Schubert (johannes.schubert@kit.edu) until the end of the lecture period on 19th of February 2021.

Winter semester 2020 / 2021

Please note:
The following regulations are in accordance with the currently valid rules of KIT (December 2020).
Please check the validity one day before the exam on the KIT homepage. In case of changes, we will also publish them shortly before the exam on IlIAS.

General regulations
- Use of a mouth/nose protection (non-medical community mask, scarf, etc.) is urgently recommended to students when entering and leaving the examination room. While writing the examination, the mask may be put off.
- Students must keep the minimum distance of 1.5 m before, during and after the exam. Please regard to this measure of safety when entering and leaving the room as well as when waiting or using the bathrooms.
- Do not pass other students within a row. Every seat can be reached from the main walkways directly. Please refer to the allocation of seats and chart of the room provided in IlIAS.
- Students (examinees) are not permitted to assemble in front of the lecture hall or in front of the building before or after the examination. After the examination, they must leave the building separately and to go away quickly.
- If you need to use the restroom during the exam, please indicate so
- Instructions given by the supervisors must be obeyed.

Winter semester 2020 / 2021

Before the exam

- Students must sign the “Declaration on the Absence of a Suspected Corona Virus Infection” (see PDF in Ilias) and bring it along for the examination. Please put the Declaration on the table in front of you during the exam.
- The task sheets will be provided in envelopes in advance and distributed on the tables. Do not take out the exam before being told to do so!
- Upon arrival at the building and before entering the lecture hall, examinees are requested to wash their hands thoroughly. Please keep your distance to other people while doing so.
- Do not pass other students within a row. Every seat can be reached from the main walkways directly. Please refer to the allocation of seats and chart of the room provided in Ilias.
- Please place your jackets and bags far away from you within your row. Handling of personal belongings other than the auxiliaries allowed raises reasonable suspicions of an attempt to cheat.
